John — Where have you been all my life? I do regret that you dropped out of class. Perhaps you will return next year. We have a good Summer. Sincerely, Reverend Bitner

Rev. Bitner Wins an Oscar

We, the class of 1951, dedicate our yearbook to the Rev. George H. Bitner.

Rev. Bitner joined the faculty of the Waynesboro High School during our freshman year and has been with us throughout our entire high school career.

Born and raised in neighboring Chambersburg, Rev. Bitner studied at Shippensburg State Teachers College and the Divinity School of Yale University.

He has been a friendly and willing counselor to us at all times. Every year he gladly accepts the responsibility of producing the inspiring Easter program. He also serves as advisor to Hi-Y and participates in numerous other activities around the school.

In his four years at Waynesboro high school, Rev. Bitner has greatly enhanced the moral and spiritual attitude of the students.

TO THE CLASS OF 1951:

The Board of Education extends to you our sincere congratulations upon the completion of your high school course.

By your industry and determination you have concluded a program laid out for you twelve years ago. This task has required precisely those personal qualities which make for success through life.

It will be to your advantage if you have acquired the facility to establish pleasant personal relationships with your associates. This talent, given further development, will largely affect your future happiness and progress.

As citizens of Waynesboro, you have enjoyed a great heritage brought about through the industry and zeal of those who have lived before you.

We are confident that your class will prove worthy of your forebearers.

With best wishes,

WAYNESBORO BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seniors Have Colorful History

Our tale begins twelve short years ago when we first set out for school. Perhaps we have forgotten many of the minute little details to which we were exposed, but there are certain experiences which all of us associate with our school days. Many amusing incidents happened, particularly in our early years, which we shall long remember.

Even in first grade, we had one marriage-minded girl among us, for it was at this tender age that Mary Warfield told the teacher she was going to marry Coby Brown when she got older.

From the start, we were far from little angels. Instead of giving the teacher the traditional apple, Melvin Newcomer gave his teacher a bag of stones. Joe Moomaw was quite the prankster even at the early age of nine. But Joe, himself, was the victim when he got splattered with ink while playing with the cork in Barbara Ramey's inkwell.

The boys were not the only ones who caused trouble, however, for it was none other than Joyce Ann Zimmerman who punched a patrolman in the nose and made it bleed.

When we entered junior high school as seventh graders, we found many new interests. The assembly programs which each homeroom gave brought to light many new talents. With Bob Fogle acting as master of ceremonies, our own Bob Blubaugh and Ronnie Provard substituted for two of the Andrew sisters in Mr. Purnell's assembly program.

In the ninth grade we elected class officers for the first time. Bob Fogle was chosen president with Mary Warfield as vice president; Betty Gardner, secretary; and Patsy Snowberger, treasurer. It was in this year also that Shirley Barbehenn won the annual spelling contest.

Tenth grade and senior high at last! With Bob Fogle again serving as president of our class and assisted by Charles Miller, vice president; Corinne Mentzer, secretary; and Jack Stoops, treasurer, we soon became active participants in all extra-curricular activities. Our class project was a lecture on wild life by Bob Ford. That year also Lois Martz received the American Legion award for an essay she wrote.

In our Junior year Bob Fogle emerged victorious from a rather heated campaign for class president. Ellsworth Smith was vice president; Doris Blubaugh, secretary; and Jackie Cosgrove, treasurer. We chose maroon and white as our class colors, and using the familiar tune to "Finlandia" Jackie Cosgrove, Joycene Mentzer, Betty Gardner, Susie Toms, Corinne Mentzer, Pat Pugh, Tom Barnhart, and William Armstrong wrote the words to our class song.

As our money-making project, our class thespians put on two one-act plays, "Sunday's Child" and "Nobody Sleeps." These plays were not only a hit, but also a financial success.

Our thoughts now turned to planning for a Junior-Senior Prom which would surpass all former ones. The decorating committee spent days making silver stars and carrying gliders until their backs ached, but their efforts were well rewarded. In a desert oasis couples danced beneath a star-studded sky to the music of Walt Sheldon.

Returning as seniors, we elected Bob Fogle to lead us for the fourth time. Assisting him were Joe Moomaw, vice president; Corinne Mentzer, secretary; and Mary Jane Tomlinson, treasurer.

Although our number had decreased to ninety-four, making us one of the smallest classes to be graduated in the past few years, we could boast being the first class at Waynesboro Senior High School to have three sets of twins in the graduating class.

Early in the year we ordered our announcements and name cards and Mr. Bennett took our pictures for the Wahian.

George Hartman won the Pennsylvania Week test which is given to seniors each year. Pat Hartman, Tom Barnhart, and Bill Armstrong represented Waynesboro High School at the State Music Festival held at Columbia, and Tom sang in the State Chorus.

February 22 and 23 will be remembered as the nights of our class play, "Mother Is A Freshman," starring Mary Jane Tomlinson as mother.

These last few months will be filled with many long-to-be-remembered events —the Prom and the Senior Dance, the Senior dinner, and Baccalaureate. Before we know it, we will be solemnly marching down the aisle to receive our diplomas. Our goal at last will have been reached.

Class Reporter Briefs the News

9 p.m. E.S.T. W.S.H.S. A.M. F.M.

The Schultz and Hareford Co., makers of "Nu," the new soothing beauty cream brings you ace news reporter, Ronald Provard, with 15 minutes of the latest news.

"Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. Waynesboro and all the ships at sea. Let's go to press.

First a look at the sports world.

Sarasota: Paced by shortstop, Bob Fogle's 8th inning homer with one on, the Boston Red Sox opened their 1961 spring exhibition schedule with a 5-2 victory over the Philadelphia A's.

New York: Coach Karl Shank of C.C.N.Y. revealed today one of his players had been contacted to throw the first game of the National Invitation Tournament.

Philadelphia: Chemist Charles White today finished experiments on a new drug which he claims is a sure cure for the dreaded disease "schoolitis."

Local: In an emergency operation late last night Dr. Tom Barnhart saved the life of Donald Mann, seriously injured when his truck turned over on Rt. 16. Dr. Barnhart was assisted by nurse Doris Blubaugh.

New York: Millionaire J. D. Rockefeller today announced the betrothal of his daughter, Ann, to Omar Stull of Waynesboro.

Washington: The Navy announced today that Lt. Com. Colin Heefner will test their new jet bomber tomorrow.

Local: Shirley Davies, Patsy Hartman, Sara Snyder and Mary Warfield plan to open a nursing school in Waynesboro in the near future. Funds for the school are being donated by Richard Ingles, one of Waynesboro's wealthiest bachelors.

Local: The pet dog of Veterinarian Leroy Rowe and his wife, the former Barbara Ramey, gave birth to a litter of 20 puppies yesterday evening.

Local: Actress Evaline Wolfe consented today to make a personal appearance in her home town sometime next month.

New York: Ira Mickley's famous painting "Snowfall" will be exhibited next week at the New York Museum.

Until next week at this very same time, I remain your Waynesboro correspondent, Ronald Provard, who reminds you to stay tuned for the Music Hour featuring William Armstrong, Ellsworth Smith, Frances Neady, Richard Bouder, Lucrecia Miller and Mary Jane Tomlinson.

Good-night."

Juniors Look Forward to Final Year

We entered our Junior year with a vision of the great events which were to stud our year with quite a bit of glamor.

The first event of any major importance was our class election and as usual there were many posters and decorated cars. Norman Miller emerged victorious from the heated campaign. Other officers were: Vice President, David Grove; Secretary, Marie Kauffman; and Treasurer, Ray Wagaman.

In order to raise money for our prom we put on two one-act plays, "The Bishop and the Convict" and "Stony's Bride." These plays would not have been possible had it not been for the tireless efforts of Mr. John Minnich, who directed us.

Our first act which, we hope, will later distinguish us as seniors, was the ordering of our class rings.

Since our financial worries for the prom are no longer in existence, we have nothing to worry about except the committees, the decorations, the orchestra, the refreshments and other minor details. We hope very much to put on a well planned and beautiful dance for the Seniors this year, but we'll have to wait until April 27 to find out the reactions.

As our Junior year nears its close we are all looking forward to being the Seniors of next year.

Sophomores Are Active in Extra-Curricular Activities

We left Junior High thinking about next year and how new it would be to us and what the teachers and school would be like. The Freshmen were moved out from Junior High and we were not the "underdogs" after all. Although the halls were jammed with traffic, we "fought" our way around and with the help of upperclassmen we soon fell into the line of things.

Our first action as a class was to elect class officers. Earl Mentzer was elected president; Ronnie Kauffman, vice president; Ann Kissinger, secretary; Pat Wolff, treasurer.

We had fun in choosing our electives and going into extra-curricular activities. The Blue and Gold, Choral and Dramatics Clubs were greatly aided by our interested and talented members. Our boys aided the Junior Varsity basketball team and loaned a hand in football and baseball.

Our time came to sponsor a money-making project and on April 19 and 20 we staged three one-act plays entitled "Not Quite Perfect," "The Greener Grass" and "There Comes a Time," under the direction of John E. Minnich. The committees served well and we cleared a good profit.

Thus we closed the curtains on our first year at Senior High.

Freshmen Surprised to be at Senior High

On September 7, 1950, one hundred twenty surprised and confused freshmen entered Waynesboro Senior High School for the first time.

We were surprised because we had not expected to enter Senior High School as ninth graders, and we were confused because we had not been prepared to assume the role of underclassmen in Senior High but had expected to be upperclassmen in Junior High. However with the help of our faculty and upperclassmen, we soon felt at home.

We elected the following classmates to be our officers: Jack Miller, president; Ronald Chamberlin, vice president; Lois Barkdoll, secretary; and Charles Ruppert, treasurer.

Soon we started getting into the swing of things. Some of us joined Choral Club and there were two in our class who were privileged to get in Special Chorus. A number of us joined the Blue and Gold staff, Dramatics Club, and Art Club. Many of the boys and girls became members of the football, basketball, and baseball teams.

Our class project was a movie to raise money for our traditional Freshman Dance.

And so ends a happy year at Waynesboro Senior High School.

Blue and Gold Reorganizes

"When does the next Blue and Gold come out?" is a question frequently asked the hard-working members of the staff.

Around the third week in every month the staff heads and reporters rush through the halls trying to complete their assignments. Under the leadership of editor, Mary Warfield; news editor, Frances Neady; sports editor, David Grove; feature editor, Roberta Beard; and the advisor, Mr. Church, the staff works hard to put out a paper which will be of interest to the students.

Mary Warfield and Roberta Beard won awards in the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association, and the paper won first place in this contest.

R. Beard, J. Moomaw, M. Warfield, Miss Mikesell, F. Neady, D. Grove.

Blue and Gold

Published on the third Thursday of each month during the school year by and for the students of the junior-senior high school of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania.

Tri-Hi-Y Serves School and Community

The aim of Tri-Hi-Y is "to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living."

The officers of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y are: Sara Snyder, president; Shirley Davies, vice president; Patricia Snowberger, secretary; Joycene Mentzer, senior treasurer; Patricia Thompson, junior treasurer; Shirley Newcomer, sophomore treasurer. The advisor is Mrs. William Church.

The Freshman Tri-Hi-Y is presided over by Martha Sollenberger, president; Audrey Shade, vice president; Lois Barkdoll, secretary; Sandra Flory, treasurer. Mrs. William Fleck is the advisor for this group.

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y's money making projects were a penny luncheon in February to which the Hi-Y was invited and a dance at the Y.M.C.A. in March. Service activities included the filling of Thanksgiving baskets for several needy families.

The Tri-Hi-Y members were guests of the Hi-Y in January when Reverend Detweiler showed slides and told of his trip through Europe. They also helped the Hi-Y sponsor a full length movie, "King of Kings," during the Lenten season.

In February, two girls were sent as representatives to the district meeting of the U.N. organized by Tri-Hi-Y groups all over Pennsylvania.

Row One—Rev. Bitner (Advisor), K. Shank, C. Bingaman, J. Baker, E. Warfield, T. Barnhart, D. Good.

Hi-Y Has Successful Year

The platform of the Hi-Y Club is composed of four points: clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship and clean living. The club, which is closely connected with the Y.M.C.A., admits any boy to its membership who will try to live up to its standards.

The club, presided over by the president, Edward Warfield, enjoyed many social as well as service and educational activities during the past year.

The club held its induction service for new members on October 23 at the Trinity Reformed Church, and that same month went on a field trip to radio station WJEJ in Hagerstown.

In December, the club was represented at the Older Boys' Conference in Harrisburg by Ralph Haffner and Danny Good, and at Christmas the club attended church in a group, accompanied by the advisors Reverend Bitner and Mr. Whiting.

In February, Reverend Detweiler told the combined Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y groups about his travels in Europe. That same month the club attended a penny luncheon given by the Tri-Hi-Y.

On February 10, the club sponsored a dance, the proceeds of which helped to pay for the movie, "Kings of Kings," for the Lenten service which was sponsored jointly with the Tri-Hi-Y.

The officers assisting the president this year are: Vice President, Tom Barnhart; Secretary, John Baker; Treasurer, Ralph Haffner; Chaplain, Bill L. Smith.

Choral Club Supports Special Programs

Making the halls echo with the strains of "O Holy Night," the Choral Club, clad in their bright red vestments, presented the program "Song of Christmas" for the students and the public as the Christmas assembly.

On March 13, the Choral Club was host to the Franklin County Chorus, a group of chosen singers from all the high schools in the county.

Under the direction of Miss F. Louise Smith, the Choral Club supplied the music for the Easter pageant "In the Shadow of the Cross," which was directed by Reverend Bitner.

The club also sang at Baccalaureate and participated in the annual Music Week Festival which was held May 10 and 11.

Special Chorus Composed of Outstanding Voices

"Are you coming back to school early this noon for Special Chorus?"

This is a question frequently asked of the members of this choral group which is composed of those who are interested enough in their music to give up many of their noon hours to perfect their singing.

Composed of the outstanding voices of Choral Club, the Special Chorus was organized to perform special numbers.

The Special Chorus participated in many assemblies and did outstanding work in the Christmas and Easter programs. The members also entertained several civic and service organizations.

In January, the Special Chorus was represented by Patsy Hartman, Tom Barnhart, and William Armstrong at the Southern District Choral Festival at Columbia, Pennsylvania.

In February, Tom Barnhart represented Waynesboro at the All-State Chorus in Ellwood City.

The entire Special Chorus participated in the Franklin County Chorus, when Waynesboro was again host on March 13.

The Special Chorus ended their year at the annual Music Festival held on May 10 and 11.

Band & Orchestra Work Hard to Please Public

The Waynesboro School Band, under the direction of Mr. Robert Zimmerman, entertained us with their drills and peppy music at the football games. Their other activities included participation in numerous parades, as well as several concerts.

William Shull, Paul Heart, Harold Buterbaugh, and William Armstrong represented Waynesboro in the District Band Festival at McSherrystown. Harold Buterbaugh went on to the State Band Festival in Harrisburg.

The orchestra furnished music for the Christmas Queen Contest, the Senior Class Play and Commencement in addition to playing for many of the school assemblies.

Ellsworth Smith, Joan Merklinger and Harold Buterbaugh represented Waynesboro in the District Orchestra Festival in Annville in March.

The Dance Band, just organized this year, played for the tea dance at the Franklin County Music Festival in Waynesboro.

Library Club Assists Miss Lowry

"Do you have a book by this author in the library?" "Where are the Latin books found?" "Is this book overdue?"

These are only a few of the varied questions the student librarians are asked during the day and for which they are trained to answer. Since Miss Lowry is at senior high school only three days a week, the library assistants must be trained to shelve books and magazines, make out overdue lists, and help both students and faculty find the material they need.

On November 17, the club presented an assembly program at which time Miss Eleanor Hoover spoke on the history and customs of the Pennsylvania Dutch. At Christmas the club had a party and exchanged gifts.

At the party given for seniors at the end of the year, each girl who had completed two or more years of successful work in the library received an award.

The officers of the club are: President, Joycene Mentzer; Vice President, Barbara Hovis; Treasurer, Jean Coffman; and Secretary, Jean Good.

Art Club Uses Talent to Aid School Project

Do you want some posters made for an athletic game or a social event? Or are you interested in a certain form of art?

Led by the officers, Barbara Hyatt, president; Evelyn Quynn, secretary; and Jerry Sterling, treasurer, the Art Club meets every Tuesday in activities period to help the members develop their talents in the various media they have chosen. Some fields in which the students are interested are: copper foil, oil painting, fashion illustration and figure painting.

The club sent in entries to the Health Poster Contest and entered the Animal Poster Contest sponsored by the Humane Society.

At Christmas, the club helped decorate the halls and painted scenes on the glass windows of the doors.

Several students entered the National Scholastic Contest, and the club was sponsor of the National High School Photographic Award Exhibit.

The club displayed its artistic achievements of the year at the Waynesboro School Exhibit which is held each spring.

Dramatics Club Trains Future Thespians

The aim of Dramatics Club is to develop each member's ability through training in the fundamentals of speaking and acting. Reasonable talent and honest interest are required for membership.

Meeting every Thursday during activities period, the members read and discussed one-act plays and radio skits. In addition they tried their hand at writing a one-act play of their own.

In April several members gave the one-act play, "Evening Dress," under the direction of John Minnich, advisor of the club.

Student Council Publishes Handbook

What is student government? How does it operate? What has it done?

These questions were the basis for a homeroom discussion led by the homeroom's council representatives to acquaint the students with the work of the Student Council.

Consisting of one representative from each homeroom, this group meets every other Thursday in shop 2. The officers are: Charles Miller, president; Lee Greenawalt, vice president; Susie Ricker, secretary; and Charlotte Kayhoe, treasurer. The faculty advisor is Miss Hade.

One of the major activities of the Council was the preparation of the Students Hand Book. During American Education Week, this group acted as a welcoming committee and took visitors on a tour of the building. The Council also participated in the tuberculosis, Red Cross and March of Dimes drive.

Sorority Aids Charitable Projects

The Tau Kappa Phi Sorority, organized to encourage friendship and cooperation among the girls for the betterment of themselves, the school and the community, is composed of twenty-four members of the junior and senior classes. They meet every other Monday at the homes of different members, under the leadrship of Miss Funk. The officers are Pat Pugh, president; Corinne Mentzer, vice president; Marilyn Plum, secretary; Norma Jean Cook, treasurer.

The girls decorated the school for basketball games and put a tree in the hall at Christmas. On Thanksgiving they filled a basket with food for a needy family.

Money making projects were a food sale in January and a dance at the Y.M. C.A. in April.

The annual farewell banquet was held in May at which time new officers were elected.

Cheerleaders Boost Morale of Students

The cheerleaders helped to boost the morale of the student body at all the athletic activities and pep meetings this year.

The enthusiastic and peppy cheerleaders were led in their cheers by co-captains Evaline Wolfe and Pat Pugh.

With their snappy cheers they encouraged the spectators to cheer the teams on to victory.

Tornadoes Show Fighting Spirit

Although one of the smallest teams to take the field in the last eight years, the Tornado proved to be one of the scrappiest. Being outweighed in every game, they fought harder than most of the larger teams and gave a credible performance for the year.

Sept. 15—Opening their season at home against a powerful Biglerville team, the Tornadoes were beaten by a score of 18-13. Waynesboro scored its two touchdowns on passes from Frank Stitely to Chas Miller. Omar Stull kicked the extra point. Biglerville scored their points in the second and third quarters.

DON LOY

One of last year's regulars, Don excelled on defense and always played a hard game at end.

JOHN BENCHOFF
Manager

John always kept the equipment and the boys in good condition and had a laugh for everyone.

FRANKLIN MILLER

Nicky was a veteran guard from last year's eleven, but was out most of this season with injuries. While playing, Nicky was constantly in the opponent's backfield.

Sept. 29—The Blue and Gold squad lost its second game of the year to the powerful Martinsburg High team on Cobourne Field. It was an evenly fought contest with Martinsburg scoring in the second period. The Tornado, hampered by some bad breaks, held the Bulldogs to a game-ending score of 6-0.

Oct. 6—The Tornado played their first conference game of the season against a heavy and speedy Carlisle team at Fairview Stadium. Waynesboro scored in the second period when Stitely threw a long pass to Bob Fogle who in turn lateralled to Stull who went the distance for the score. The Blue and Gold scored again early in the fourth quarter when Stitely uncorked a beautiful long pass to Karl Shank at the Carlisle 12 yard line. Two plays later Stitely passed to Shank for the touchdown. Stull booted both extra points for Waynesboro. The Thundering Herd scored their touchdowns on hard-running plays and a gifted interception of a pass. The game ended 34-14.

Oct. 13—The Tornado lost their second Conference game to the Gettysburg Warriors on the latter's field. Three pass interceptions and a blocked punt gave the Warriors a 26-2 victory. A half dozen times Waynesboro repulsed Gettysburg attacks in the first quarter. Late in the second period an intercepted pass proved costly for the Tornado and Gettysburg scored their first touchdown. They scored two more the same way in the third quarter. Fumbles proved very costly throughout the game for the Tornado. Waynesboro scored their two points when a Gettysburg player stepped out of the end zone while attempting to punt. Gettysburg scored their final touchdown when they blocked a Waynesboro punt and on the next play scored.

Oct. 20—The Blue and Gold eleven lost their third straight Conference game when the Hershey Trojans outran and outpassed the Tornado at the school stadium. The Trojans scored in almost every period and at the end of the game they led 32-0.

Oct. 27—The Palmermen lost their fourth conference game when they traveled to Mechanicsburg to battle the Wildcats. The Tornadoes fumbled twice inside the Mechanicsburg 20 yard line when it appeared they were going to score. The Wildcats gained constantly through the center of the Waynesboro line. The score was 32-0 when the final whistle blew.

Nov. 3—Playing one of their best games of the season against a highly favored team, the Blue and Gold gave a credible performance of themselves. But the Chambersburg Trojan fought back to win the game 26-0.

Nov. 10—Taking advantage of a poor pass defense and fumbles, the Shippensburg Greyhound shut out the Tornadoes 12-0 at Shippensburg's newly built stadium. The Tornadoes ran and passed their way to the Shippensburg 14 yard line, but fumbled as they were about to take it over the goal line.

Nov. 17—The scrappy Tornadoes played their best game of the year against a powerful Hanover team. The Palmermen took a 7-6 halftime lead when Mac McCleary, Tornado tackle, recovered a fumble in the end zone and Jack Stoops passed to Runt Rock for the conversion. The Nighthawks came back strong in the second half to score two touchdowns and take an 18-7 lead. The Tornadoes played a terrific offensive game and scored again on a pass from Bob Mitchell to Bob Fogle late in the fourth period. Time ran out on the Tornadoes and the final score was 18-13.

Nov. 23—Playing their final game of the season, the Blue and Gold Tornadoes were outscored 33-7 by the power-laden Hagerstown Hubs, in the annual Thanksgiving Day game. The Tornadoes scored their points late in the fourth quarter on a pass from Frank Stitely to Karl Shank for the touchdown. Stitely passed to Bob Fogle for the extra point.

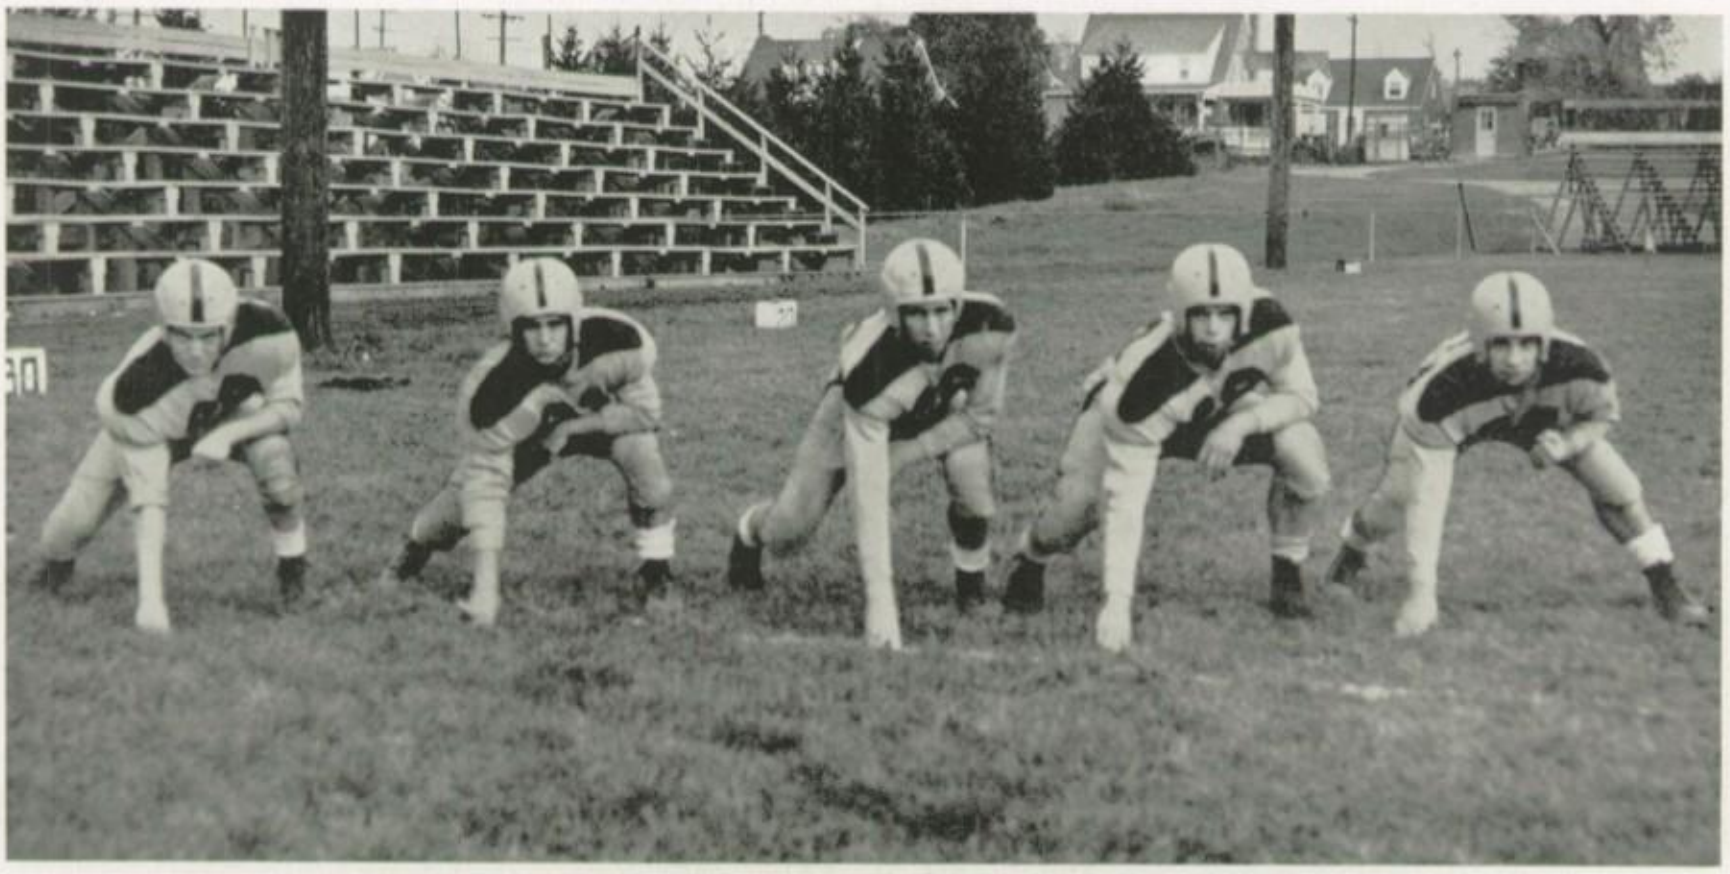
JACK DUFFY
Although one of the lighter linemen, Mouse did a praiseworthy job and always showed the will to win.

ED WARFIELD
Playing at center, Ed gave a creditable performance of himself and had a lot of fighting spirit.

KEN STALEY
Ken performed the center position remarkably well and was a big help in backing up the forward wall.



JACK STOOPS
Although one of the smaller members of the team, Jack, playing his first year of football, took on a big job sharing the Q-Back position.

RONNIE ROCK
Runt was the co-captain and smallest on the squad, but made up for it with his scrappy playing and determination to win.

FRANK STITELY
Frank directed the team's offense and did most of the ball handling and passing from the Q-Back slot.

BOB WILHIDE
Bob proved valuable to the Tornadoes with his penetrating dashes through the line and around the end.

OMAR STULL
Omie was the mainstay of the backfield and kept the opponents alert with his hard running.

KARL SHANK

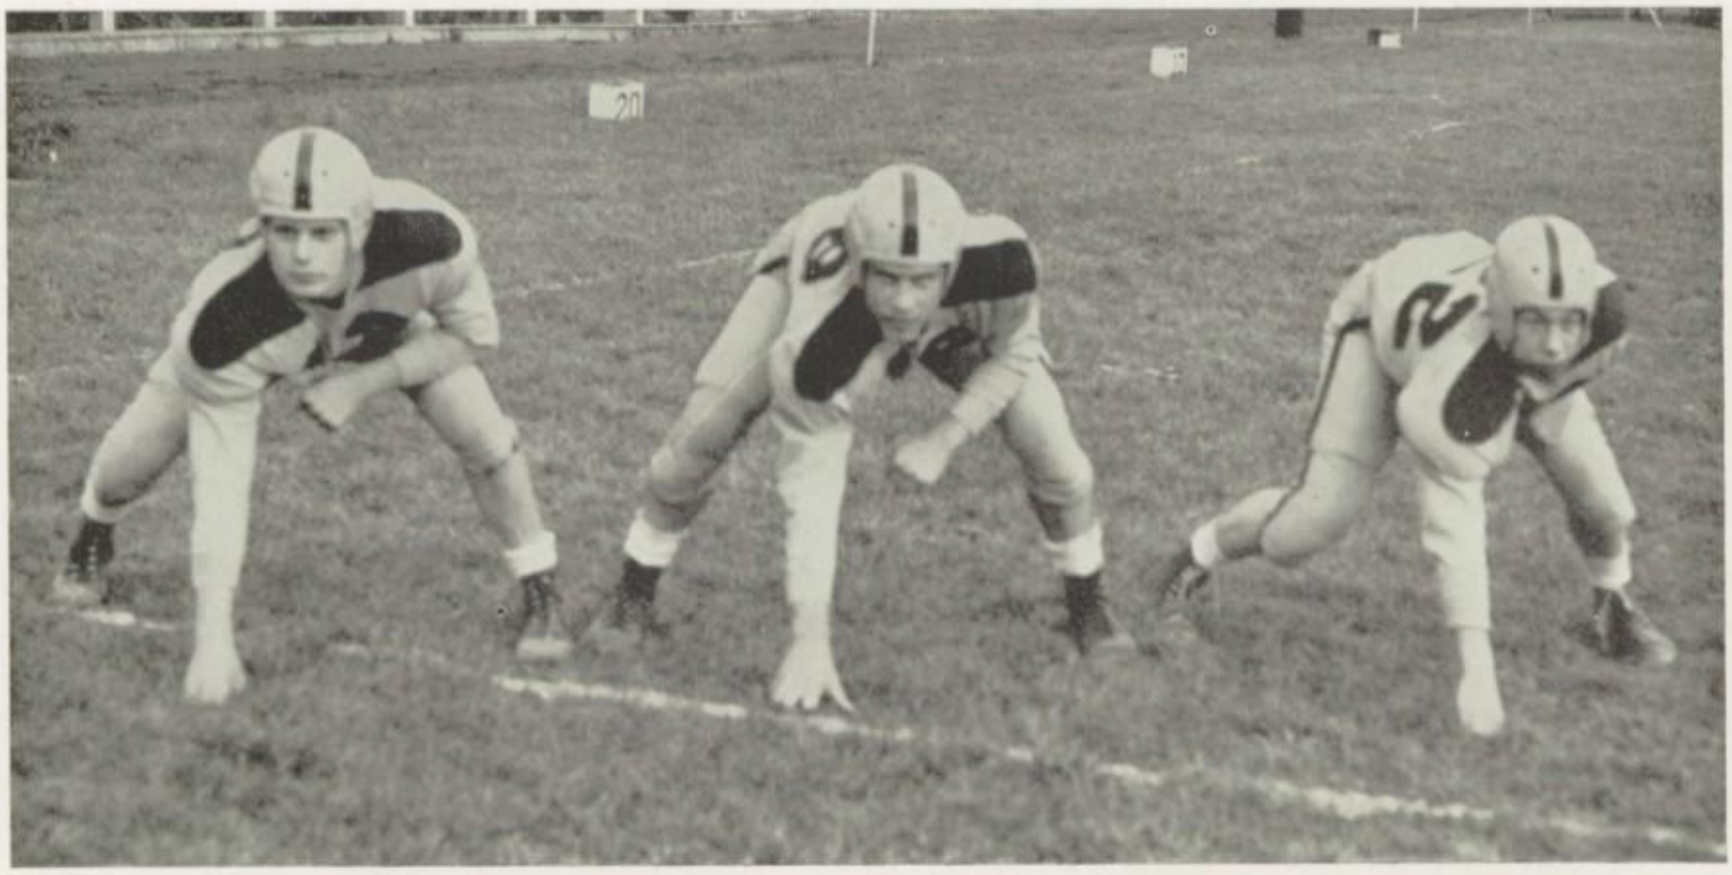
Sam was one of the co-captains and mainstays of this year's team, playing end on offense, and left halfback on defense, he gave his best at all times.

CHARLES MILLER

Chas played end for the Blue and Gold and showed a lot of fighting spirit on both offense and defense.

BOB FOGLE

Pig's pass-receiving was a valuable asset to the Tornadoes and he could be depended upon to play his best



DON McCLEARY

Red was the biggest man on the squad and excelled at tackle on both offense and defense.

BOB BLUBAUGH

Playing guard, Bucky was a hard worker and could always be depended on to play his best.

IRA MICKLEY

Bud was the smallest man on the line, but played faithfully whenever called upon.

Jayvees Gain Much Experience

The Junior Varsity, under the direction of Coach Larry Palmer proved that they had the spirit and will to play basketball this year.

Winning 2 and losing 18 of their games does not account for many of the exciting games they played this year.

The boys proved that they have gained much experience this year and will be competing for Varsity berths next year.

Varsity Enters Class B Playoffs

Although their record was not too impressive, the Tornadoes played close, hard-fought games.

The Wellivermen entered the Class B playoffs for the third time in the school's history, but lost to a scrappy Dallastown team in the first game.

We wish the best of luck to next year's team for a successful season.

Varsity Nine Shows Power

The 1950 edition of the Blue and Gold baseball team ended their season with a total of 6 wins against 8 losse.

Many of the starters from last year's team will be back again this season with at least two years' experience behind them.

The Tornadoes, coached by Lewis Purnell, hope to end in first place in the Franklin County League this season.

Zephyrs Boast Good Record

Losing only one of their scheduled games this year, the Zephyrs, coached by Mrs. Geiser, proved that they were a hard combination to beat.

The girls played the men's faculty in a rough and tumble affair at the end of the regular season, with the "old timers" winning 28-19.

Winning 8 games, they netted a total of 335 points and held their opponents to 151 points.

Athletic Council Sponsors Varied Sports Program

The girls' intramural program is sponsored each year by the Girls' Athletic Council, under the direction of Mrs. Geiser.

This program is set up to encourage fair play and good sportsmanship in a variety of activities that will be of recreational value both now and in later years.

Awards in the form of numerals, pins, and letters are given the ten girls in each class who have accumulated the highest number of points during the year.

Norma Jean Cook, president of the Athletic Council was also in charge of basketball and ping pong. She was assisted by the following girls: Joyce Wagaman, basketball and shuffleboard; Barbara Ramey, dancing; Joyce Grove, ping pong and badminton; Delores Martz, volleyball and bowling; Delores Rock, dancing; Jo Ann Watts, volleyball and bowling; Rayetta Biesecker, shuffleboard; and Sandra Roberts, badminton.

The Student's Soliloquy

To study or not to study: That is the question
Whether 'tis better to suffer in class
The anger and wrath of an outraged teacher
Or to take home an armload of lessons
And by studying them, learn them, to read—to study
No more: and by studying to say we end
The thousand nights in detention
The student is heir to. 'Tis a thing
Devoutly to be wished! To read—to study
To cram—perchance to learn! Aye there's the rub,
For in that event what tests may come
When we have but half learned the dreaded Latin
Must give us pause. There's the late date
That makes the unlearned lesson of so long life
For who would bear the whips and stings of rulers
The teacher's anger, the students' jibes,
The sight of A's deferred (kind teacher's deed)
The shame of pity and looks of scorn
With which the unprepared is daily teased,
When he himself might end such heart-felt griefs
By studying some fair night. Oh who would live
Yawning and staring into a book
Till school becomes a weary life,
The undiscovered building from whose walls
No student returns. But the principal sees,
And makes us do those lessons we have
Than to fly to places he knows not of.
Thus school does make geniuses of us all.

(With apologies to Shakespeare)

Seniors Present "Mother is a Freshman"

Everyone saw the class play, but very few people had a chance to go backstage. Is it play practice or Bible Literature class misplaced? That question could have been asked had anyone overheard the conversation backstage one day. Mary Warfield stood before Lemar Helman and solemnly read the Ten Commandments. Could it be that she thought he needed discipline? Who could forget Mr. Minnich's insistence that Ed was not kissing Mary Jane properly and should try again?

Finally the big night was here. Barbara stood before the footlights holding a telephone in her shaking hand and the curtain was up on "Mother Is a Freshman."

Air Conditioning Systems

Serve scores of businesses—from small restaurants, offices, and stores to the largest buildings and industrial plants.

The 5-hp. Frick unit at Hupper's Confectionery in Lancaster, Penna., cools a room measuring 53 by 23 feet, protects large displays of chocolates, and provides comfort to patrons. (See photograph above.)

The 126 apartments in Lencshire House at Washington, D. C., are kept cool all summer by three Frick NEW "ECLIPSE" compressors, shown below.

For dependable air conditioning, refrigerating, quick-freezing or ice-making equipment, look to Frick Company.

So You Want To Go To Work And Earn A Living

Everyone has to work for a living. Will you have a business of your own or would you prefer to work for an established company? In either case you will be interested in the Waynesboro manufacturing plants and the people they employ.

Waynesboro's manufacturing plants are modern and well-financed. They are owned in most part by Waynesboro people. They are ably managed by local men who care about the welfare and safety of those who work in them. The men in management positions are always accessible to employees.

Wages in Waynesboro are good; they don't claim to beat big city rates but are above the average for the nation and employment here is much more regular than in most places.

If you live in this area a job in Waynesboro offers several advantages. Many of the people who know you and are interested in your future already work in the plants here. Your work will be where your home, your parents and friends are. Compare Waynesboro with any other industrial center. You will find it more healthy and prosperous with higher moral standards and with a far better balance between industry and agriculture.

Its 11,000 citizens support 6 schools and more than 20 churches.

In addition to numerous other jobs Waynesboro manufacturers have apprenticeships or training courses in the following crafts and lines of work:

Pattern Maker
Core Maker
Moulder
Machinist
Blacksmith
Dyer
Knitter
Cutter
Folder
Presser
Inspector
Shipper
Sheet Metal Worker
Plate Fabricator
Carpenter
